

Trinity Newsletter 13th - 17th March

THANKS to those who provided and distributed flowers last Sunday.

This Sunday 17th March at 10a.m., Mrs Josie Keys will lead the worship. Trinity's annual Gift Day was launched last Sunday but your gifts will be welcomed at any time before the end of the month. Offerings for this appeal should be placed in the specially marked envelopes (or via your Bank, marked "Gift Day" and your name). The sum given will be put towards updating the fire alarm and other safety systems. Thank you for your continuing response.

On both 24th March and Easter Sunday the 31st, at 10a.m., the Preacher will again be our own minister the Rev. Canon Jason Vinyard and both services will include Holy Communion. There will be the opportunity (if you so wish) to give towards the Easter Offering which is for the Methodist Church's World Mission Fund, this year under the heading "Let Justice Roll". For the history of this Methodist tradition and other information see on line at methodist.org.uk/easteroffering.

Items for the next edition of the Circuit Newsletter should be sent to Yvette in the Office by 16th March. The deadline for contributions to the next TRINITY FORUM are due to be with Russell Cooke by 28th March. Let's share our news around and learn what others are doing.

See posters and flyers around the building about our concern with the "Eco world". Stella Davis has arranged meetings where our concerns for a greener world can be explored together in interesting ways. Take a packed lunch to Bradfield Methodist Church for a session from 10 till 4, car sharing if you can; the first of these sessions is on 16th March, where a stimulating time with others will be presented: it is all about "how to bECOMe eco friendly whoever and wherever we are".

TRINITY FUND RAISING:

The Aquarius Singers will be here for their SPRING CONCERT on 17th March at 3p.m. They will be joined by flautist Clare Mellor. Val Matthews has tickets for sale now (£10) or they can be bought on the door. QUIZ night is on 23rd March, contact Lynda Moore,

Another quiz sheet will be ready very shortly - please join in at the cost of £1. From these quiz sheets and from the sales of Ann Hunter's book, over £100 has been put to the Buildings Fund so far. THANK YOU. There are still some books available.
