

Trinity Newsletter for 27th May to 7th June

Worship at Trinity on 31st May at 10a.m. will be led by the Rev. Patrick Prigg, and that day is Trinity Sunday - not especially for our own Trinity Methodist Church but for the Christian church in general, when the mystery and breadth of thinking about the Three in One God is again brought to mind. Our worship on the following Sunday, 7th June, at 10a.m. will be led by the Rev. Julie Minns. A week after that our preacher on 14th June will be Stella Davis from Stowmarket and this will be an opportunity for us to ask her to take back there our collection of used pens, markers, etc. for recycling. If you have any more lurking at home do please bring them along before then. The collection box is still on the landing.

Trinity Coffee Morning is open every Wednesday from 9.30-12 for everyone. Coffee, tea, lovely cakes & scones (and conversation). A warm welcome awaits.

And welcome to TRINITY HOSPITALITY & OPEN GARDENS EVENTS: The first of these will take place on 30th and 31st May from 10-1 and 2-5: there is a choice of 5 places to visit over this weekend. If these dates are not possible for you then some different venues will be open at the end of JUNE. There is a directory of the participants, their addresses, telephone numbers and any further useful information. PLEASE NOTE that Malcolm & Margot Houghton are no longer able to take part in this event. The other venues due to open this weekend will still be opened, as per the directory. The purpose of the events is to enjoy hospitality and fellowship at the venues; hopefully, if the weather is kind, in the respective gardens. There is no entry fee but if you would like to make a donation it will be gratefully received and put towards the proposed new toilets at Trinity. Thank you - Gillian and Don Day.

The Rev. Julie Minns is organising a plant stall for the Martins' residential home Summer Fair to be held on 11th July and asks if anyone who is at present taking cuttings or planting seeds has anything to spare and would like to donate it for this purpose she would be grateful: speak to Julie if you can help.

The Editor of Trinity's Forum magazine, Russell Cook, reminds us that contributions would be welcomed for the June edition, the due date for sending contributions being 29th May.
